Detailed Description
... performing a payment via a changed payment means.

    Like above, the present invention provides a partial   payment via a plurality of payment   means and embodies new technical ideas which are different in the prior art, in refunding (partial   payment cancellation), changing goods, doing a combination sale, and changing a payment means. And this is...

Claim
... infon-nation for sale of said goods based on said result information of the performed payment .

2 The method as claimed in claim 1, wherein said plurality of payment means comprise at least one selected from a group consisting of cash
, a credit card and a mobile phone.
